COMMUNION SUNDAY

This Sunday is a Communion Sunday. Please have your at-home Communion elements at hand before viewing our worship service.

PHOTOS

The lessons for this Sunday are about Jesus feeding 5,000. It took place outside, sitting on the grass. A picnic! That's what we need. Picnic photos, if you have them. Gather at your table for a meal and take a picture! Bringing a meal to someone. Donating food. Whether inside or outside, the sharing of food. Your photos have been so great. They truly add to the service! Simply upload your photos to: <https://tinyurl.com/StMarksPhotos> Thanks!

A THANK YOU – TO YOU!

The following is a note I received from Naronna to you:

When Karen Keller asked my permission to announce my birthday in the Remarks & Reminders issue, it never occurred to me that anyone really cared. But how wrong I was.

I thank you from the bottom of my heart for your telephone calls and cards. You made my day. It will be a birthday that I'll always remember.

My sincerest thanks to you.

Naronna Gebert

Pastor Tina was also sending thanks to you. She loved the photos you sent in for her last service here at St. Mark's. She said she was keeping the recorded service so she could watch it over again.

SERVICES STILL CONTINUE

Our recorded services will still continue. Pastor Bartlett will be leading our worship for the next two Sundays. Scripture, prayers will still need to be recorded. Photos will still need to be sent. We can all be part of making our church service inspirational and interesting. Recording a greeting or a prayer or a scripture helps connect us. We see each other. The photos are fun! Our church family is still together. So when a call comes..... Say Yes!

A memorial service for Dolores will be held this Friday, July 31st at the Mann-Slonaker Funeral Home. Visitation is 10AM to 11AM. The service begins at 11AM. Burial will follow at the St. Mark's Cemetery.
