THAT WAS SOME STORM!

I hope everyone is recovering from Wednesday's storm. So much rain, so much flooding. Gentle rain is so calming and relaxing, but the rain on Wednesday kept me awake all night wondering what was happening outside. One positive thought is that these next few days are sunny and breezy. Maybe that will help dry out things that aren't supposed to be wet.

GOOD TO KNOW:

A letter will be sent out next week. It's from Church Council to you! Be sure to look for it.

If you are planning to attend the Sept. 14th.WELCA luncheon meeting, please call Elaine (215-913-2265) or Lucy (215-679-6724). The Pub needs a headcount to prepare tables. Thanks! The meeting begins at 11:30AM.

It's hoagie time again! This will be the last hoagie fundraiser for this season. Heavenly Helpers uses the funds raised from hoagie sales to enable them to reach out and help others. So, if you want a delicious, easy dinner night, just fill out the order form at the end of this newsletter. Bring it to church, or call it in to the church office. Orders are due Thursday, September 9th.

The September 8th Altar Guild meeting will be held in the multi-purpose room. It will be the first meeting in a long time b/c of Covid. Bonnie is hoping everyone can attend because they will be planning for the upcoming holiday season.
